NO DEMOCRATIC UPSETS AS THE LATEST COUNT IS MADE

There were no upsets in the previous announcements as a result of the compilation of the overworked force of Clarence Standage of up-to-date figures on Maricopa county, in Tuesday's primary. The outstanding feature, of course, was the close race of J. T. Bone and T. M. Burroughs for county assessor and it was rumored yesterday that the nomination of Bone might be contested, though Mr. Burroughs declined to give out his plans. In the totals given out by Clerk Standage yesterday, every precinct except those of Wickenburg No. 1, Vulture, Agua Caliente and McDowell was reported. The sealed returns from Wickenburg cannot affect the situation, as there were but eight votes cast in that precinct, and but six of them were for democratic candidates. Neither Vulture nor Agua Caliente cast a vote, and it was said that no election was held in McDowell. Representatives of the sheriff's office and Mr. Standage, went to McDowell late yesterday afternoon to bring in the returns, or else to settle the hard doubts regarding the case.

Following are the totals:

Presidential elector: Cobb, 3559; Dougherty, 1137; Gardner, 2041; Pickett, 2089; Wood, 2945.

HUGHES OUT OF HOSPITAL

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

SALT LAKE, Utah, Sept. 15.—Tom Hughes, pitcher for the Salt Lake club of the Pacific Coast League and formerly with the Washington Americans, left the Holy Cross hospital today, where he was operated upon for the removal of several small bones broken fourteen years ago, while pitching for the Baltimore club. Hughes is out of the game for the remainder of the season.

Judge Kibbey, Judge Hayes, H. B. Wilkinson and Ernest Hall were found winners in the only three contests on the republican state and county ticket, when the first real count of republican ballots in the Tuesday primary was given out by the republican state central committee yesterday afternoon.

The figures were compiled by O. B. Ruggles from election books at the office of the board of supervisors.

N. A. Morford won the nomination for justice in the west precinct over J. T. Shaw. Although the vote was light, T. E. Campbell led with a nice complimentary vote.

The figures are for all precincts but Agua Caliente, Vulture and McDowell, in which no elections were held, and Wickenburg No. 1, where the boxes were sealed. The first official figures will be given out Monday, when the ballot boxes will be opened in the office of the board of supervisors.

Electors: Cook 1285, Hubbell 1458, Greenway 1845.

U. S. Senator: Kibbey 1226, Stillwell 402.

Congress: Hads 923, Nelson 523.

Supreme Court: O. J. Baughn 1373.

Governor: Campbell 1509.

SIDEGLITS ON THE TUESDAY PRIMARIES

Judge R. C. Stanford was one of the first voters in his precinct. He called at the polls early and was handed his ballot without being forced to stand in line. He entered the booth and displayed that embarrassment for which women who have never before cast a vote are noted. Finally, with a gasp, in which he injected words which used in his court would send the offender up for contempt, he returned the republican ballot and received one more in keeping to a democratic officer, Judge Lyman, who lives in the same precinct, was afforded the same treatment, with like result.

When the votes were counted in the tenth precinct, the tired clerks halted for a moment in appreciation of a ballot signed by Mrs. Jane Doe. Jane knew how to write, and didn't have to use the cross.

It was rumored on the streets yesterday that T. M. Burroughs, candidate for nomination on the democratic ticket for county assessor, would contest the nomination of J. T. Bone, if Bone were declared nominated. Burroughs stated last evening that his friends had informed him that he was 18 votes ahead, while the count given out at the supervisors' office (not official) placed him 7 in the lead. Burroughs stated that he had not yet consulted with his attorneys, Baker and Baker, and was not ready to make any statement.

Over in the ninth precinct, there ensued a struggle that threatened to eclipse the furious conflict between Hunt and Olney. It was in the republican ranks, too, and it ended in the election of C. E. Arnold and J. E. Nelson as committeemen over Bob Kirk and Johnny Akin. The standing of the clubs at the end of the season was: Arnold, 45; Nelson, 31; Akin, 23; Kirk, 24.

In the same precinct there was a warm scrap waged between five democrats for the offices of committeemen. The winners were: I. D. Shanhart, 57; M. J. Foley, 51; J. E. Nelson, 45; and the losers, Francis Geary and Tom Shaughnessy, received 78 votes apiece.

One of the bits of election humor was the complimentary vote of one accorded to R. P. Holliday, a Republican reporter, for secretary of state. Holliday, who is in the statehouse daily, and has secured a fine standing with all the stenographers. He said that if the election rested with the genial young women in the state's employ, he could have been nominated for any office he chose.

The pencils are busy figuring out where the Samuel Hill the half of the democratic vote will stand in the primaries will be in the secondaries. There is a well-founded suspicion that it will be found clustered opposite the names of a number of republican candidates.

Anyway, Clarence Standage and the reporters are glad the election is over. Only cloud on the horizon is the election of November 7.

Around the office of the corporation commission, and especially in the cubby-hole where "Harvey" Betts holds forth, action ranged yesterday from the fever heat of the joy of winning to the icy chills of apprehension over having lost. Although the result was never in doubt, the unexpected strength of his opponent, Miller, caused some worry. When it was finally learned, through a series of telegrams from over the state that Betts had won, everybody relaxed and went back to normal.

During yesterday afternoon J. Harrie Clonnan, who will be Betts' opponent on the republican ticket, called at the statehouse and was the guest of Betts, who introduced him about the building. Clonnan expressed the hope that both he and Betts would keep their passion down in the coming race, and after November 7 would be good friends as they are now. Betts heartily added an amen to this, apparently having had enough of mud-slinging.

The governor, instead of having a bad attack of Glee, as his opponents claimed he would, was suffering yesterday with a carbuncle, which prevented him from putting his neck to its proper use, and kept that important organ from performing its functions as it should. In spite of the pain in which he labored, Governor Hunt was at his desk all day, and received any number of congratulatory wires from over the state. Leroy Ladd, his secretary, was still indisposed as a result of overwork at the polls.

The pressure tank was to have been placed in position on Saturday but when the plumbers came out to do the work, they found their night prepared excavation filled with water and much dirt washed in by Friday's rain. The tank was installed Monday, however, and the rest of the work will be rushed as rapidly as possible. The water in the new well is very good for the valley, being reasonably soft and free of the apple core that and neighboring valleys for the Walter Hill company. We rejoice to see Gladstone receiving promotions which we are sure he deserves, and we expect to see him a prosperous business man in the not far distant future.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinnell returned Monday evening from a three week's trip to Prescott where they had a delightful time. But on the way home their radiator sprung a leak and they had a dreadful time getting home. Baby Don got his hand infected with some poison while in there and while it is better, it is still very sore.

Mrs. Scott Grimes is sick again, with a severe bilious attack.

The neighbors were glad to see Mr. Bide-a-wee Smith able to come out to vote Tuesday. This is the first time he has been able to leave home for three months and while he is still quite weak, he is improving.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Creighton church was held Monday evening and the reports showed a splendid year's work. Mr. Adkinson presided.

The Etter family are rejoicing over the birth of a new boy to their sister, Mrs. Ernest T. Smith of the south side. The young man arrived at 1:30 p. m. Monday and received a most hearty welcome, his father telephoning the news to the relatives and friends, as soon as he recovered his speech enough to do so.

Mrs. Hagerd, who has spent the last year with her daughter, Mrs. T. Forman here, is expecting to leave for her home in Kentucky next Monday. Mrs. Hagerd has been pleased with the valley and the people she has met here, but she has lived in Kentucky so long that no place else will ever seem like home to her.

Mr. Gladstone Elerick is now at Scott Valley superintending the packing of the apple core that and neighboring valleys for the Walter Hill company. We rejoice to see Gladstone receiving promotions which we are sure he deserves, and we expect to see him a prosperous business man in the not far distant future.

TOUGHNESS IN MEAT EASILY OVERCOME

Cheap cuts of meat are easily digested and palatable as well as economical, if they are prepared in such a way that their toughness and lack of flavor is overcome. Prolonged cooking at a low temperature will often the connective tissues or chopping the tough cuts will break the muscle fiber and this also will make it more tender and more easily digested. The natural flavor of meat may be retained by careful cooking. Other flavors may be added by the use of vegetables such as onions, carrots, green peppers, turnips, or by seasoning with condiments such as sage, lemon rind, vinegar, celery seed, pepper sauce, pickles, cloves, currant jelly, or some good commercial meat sauce.

SAVE CALVES FROM BEST MILK GIVERS

You cannot always buy good cows, but another way to get a good herd together is by keeping records of the production of each individual cow in your herd and saving the heifer calves from the larger producers. These calves being from a good registered sire and from selected cows, it will not take many years to build up a first-class herd.

You can only know your best cows by continuous weighing and testing of the milk, and keeping records of each individual so that some information may be secured as to the cost of production, which is growing more important as the prices of feed stuffs and labor advance.—G. W. Barnes, Live Stock Specialist, University of Arizona Agricultural Extension Service.
